Lc. Lily Pons

Rivermont[®]
ORCHIDS
 SIGNAL MOUNTAIN, TENNESSEE

Most amateur and small commercial growers lack sufficient quantities of fine white with colored lip hybrids for the spring and summer season.

LC. LILY PONS is a dependable hybrid of excellent quality to meet this seasonal demand.

While only a color photograph would do justice to these seedlings, the photograph at the left indicates the quality and excellent cultural condition of the plants. The parentage of this cross includes C. Priscilla, alba, known for its good form and heavy texture, and Lc. Canhamiana, alba, var. Rivermont, which transmits its excellent characteristics of form, texture, and deep colored lip, to LC. LILY PONS.

Like the vivacious opera star for whom this cross is names, it will perform brilliantly during the spring season when you need whites with colored lips.

Lip: Violet Purple, 2-1/8" across Petals are 3-3/4" with average overall spread of 7-1/2"	Throat: Barium Yellow (bright and golden)

THREE SPRING LAVENDERS

Three lovely lacy lavender seedlings of proven quality and parentage, ready to flower in May and June of 1953 or 1954.

R-793 - C. SIR WALTER SCOTT (C. Gigas x C. Harold)
R-764 - C. ARDENS, (C. Hardyana x C. Dupreana)
R-759 - C. LAVENDER LASS (C. Hentschelii x C. Harold)

C. SIR WALTER SCOTT is a repeat cross of a proven commercial hybrid. The Gigas parent has dark petals and sepals, deep rose lip with two bright eyes and edge ruffles. The Harold parent has heavy lavender petals, good form, ruffles, and vivid eyes. LAVENDER LASS varies from light to dark with large lip, fuchsia and lavender rose edging, and bright yellow eyes. Flowers are very long lasting. ARDENS also varies from light to dark with characteristics similar to Lavender Lass.

For each of the above crosses:

1 3" Pot $6.00
6 3" Pots 18.00

These healthy commercial hybrids and species in 4", 5", and 6" pots will bloom just in time for presentation to your family and friends next Christmas season. Our seedling crop is expanding so rapidly we must have the space occupied by these plants. They have lost their lease and we hope you will give them a permanent home so they can produce two or three lovely flowers each year.

Plants are in excellent cultural condition, will not require repotting, and Rivermont's full guarantee is included, even at this low price!

BEGINNERS' TREAT

Are you a Beginner?

ENTHUSIASTIC AMATEUR?

or purchasing for a friend,
business associate,
or customer

You get relative value at every price level, and you can be sure of good quality at any price. Many thousands of plants are available, so please write if your requirements are not met by this listing. If you contemplate building a commercial collection we can furnish suitable plants for a long range cut flower program.

Beginner or hobbyist, you can grow any of these fine species or hybrids. No two plants are exactly alike, so there is a wide price range for every type. Less expensive plants may be slightly smaller or take longer to bloom; more expensive plants may bloom sooner or produce larger flowers.
